Bienvenidos a Mar del Plata, Argentina

The City of Mar del Plata is known as “The Jewel of the Atlantic.” In the summer season, it welcomes millions of visitors from all over the world, combining the beauty and charm of its natural resources with the service and the hospitality of its people, making your stay in Mar del Plata a wonderful unique cultural experience.

Located in the Province of Buenos Aires and about 400km south of the city of Buenos Aires, it is a beautiful seaside tourist centre.

Mar del Plata has everything. Its cultural life is reminiscent of the City of Buenos Aires. The most outstanding attractions include Colón Square, Torreón del Monje, Los Troncos Neighbourhood, the port and Punta Mogotes. At night, its pubs, discos, and the famous Casino of Mar del Plata are ready to welcome the most demanding customers. The theatres in the city get crowded as the most outstanding plays are presented each season. The surroundings are also beautiful. Visitors may access places such as Sierra de los Padres Lagoon, the beaches of nearby Chapadmalal or the hilly City of Balcarce.

Mar del Plata has a temperate climate with masses of warm and humid subtropical sea air and an average temperature of over 22° c. Beside the Atlantic Ocean, Mar del Plata has cliffs, sand hills and vast sandy beaches ideal for enjoying summer walks, cycling or riding. Nautical activities such as surfing, windsurfing, jet skiing, SCUBA diving, motor boating, sailing and swimming stand out. One of the sports chosen by visitors to “the Pearl of the Atlantic” is sport fishing, which can be done both from the city piers and on boats leaving from its famous port. At the port location, visitors may watch sea lions and the routine of the fishermen that return with their catches everyday or taste all kinds of seafood in the dozens of restaurants located in the area.

Mar del Plata is the perfect combination for those who seek a relaxing quiet time as well as the possibility of finding the constant hustle and bustle in each corner of the city.

The friendly people of Mar del Plata are keen to showcase their city and welcome the Golden Oldies Rugby participants in 2014 with the passion and enthusiasm that you only find in Argentina.
